

TRUTH ALWAYS TRIUMPHS (Outstanding)

Once, the parents of Abdul Qadir Gilani decided to send him to Baghdad for learning. At the time of his departure, his mother gave him forty golden coins as the provisions for journey. She advised him to speak the truth always. With a caravan, he started his journey to Baghdad. On the way, when the caravan was passing through a desert, a gang of robbers attacked them and robbed all the passengers of their possessions. One of the dacoits came to Abdul Qadir and asked what he owned. Abdul Qadir replied that he owned forty golden coins. The dacoit searched him thoroughly to find the coins but could not succeed in detecting any. He asked Abdul Qadir where the coins were. Abdul Qadir said that they were sown in his clothes. The robber was deeply impressed by this truth. He took Abdul Qadir to the leader of the gang and told him the whole story. The leader asked Abdul Qadir why he had not saved his money by telling a lie. Abdul Qadir said that his mother had advised him to speak the truth always. Therefore, he had acted upon his mother's advice. This reply of Abdul Qadir moved the leader to tears. The leader thought that the little boy had preferred the advice of his mother to the golden coins while he had disobeyed Allah for them. He at once decided to renounce all his evil deeds and repented deeply of his sins. All the robbers followed their leader and did penance. They returned the looted luggage to the passengers and decided to adopt the path of virtue.

Possible Morals:

- ❖ Truth always triumphs.
- ❖ Virtue never goes waste / unrewarded.
- ❖ Virtue generates virtue.

Note:

If you want to increase the length of story than you can write these paragraphs

Before the story write this paragraph.

The most hated word in this world is morality. The person who teaches morality is also hated and despised. It may be a pessimistic point of present situation. We do not like to learn good morals and manners when they are taught in dull and dry manners. Perhaps it was because of this, that centuries ago Mr. Aesop concocted some moral stories. These stories have been written in a very lively and interesting style. We read these stories and learn some moral lesson from them. But we do not have any impression of being moralized. The following story is also a similar one.

At the end of the story write this paragraph.

Morals are like universal truths. Every person irrespective of his caste, creed, colour or country has a firm belief in them. Those who try to follow them in their lives avert many perils and problems. The above mentioned story also teaches us such a moral lesson that can help us avoid many unpleasant and bitter situations.
